

Wisdom of a Wednesday (on a Thursday)

November 5, 2020

I hope this WOW finds you all and your loved ones healthy.

With NCAA Referee School just around the corner, I want to announce two of the guests who have agreed to provide our great content and engage with us during the sessions. As a reminder, below is the slated schedule:

December 5th

9-11am

NCAA Referee School Overview

Covid-19 Officiating

New Officiating Procedures

New Rules - Part One

1-3pm

Coach/Referee Relationship & Interaction

Referee/Coach & Referee/Referee Relationship & Interaction

Advantage/Hierarchy of Fouls

4-6pm

Referee History & Legacy

New Rules - Part Two

Remaining Topics

(all times are PST)

I am thrilled to let you know we have two outstanding coaches who have agreed to be guest speakers for the Coach/Referee Relationship & Interaction segment:

Heather Moody -former NCAA coach and athlete, Olympic medal winner as both a coach and a player, current Head Coach at American River College and American River Water Polo Club.

Adam Krikorian - former NCAA coach and athlete, coach of multiple Olympic medal winning teams as well as the current USA Women's Olympic Team (and dad to a water polo player).

Both coaches will speak to us about their experiences interacting with referees at all levels and how we can more effectively work together for the betterment of the game.

All of the segments will be made available on the Advantage website about a week after the school for those who could not attend or those that just want to take another listen to the materials presented.

Stay tuned for additional guest speaker releases!
