STAY AHEAD OF THE GAME

As a Conference Assigner, you must tackle mountains of details in the course of your work day. You keep track of and connect with hordes of officials, deal with an almost constant stream of game changes, updates and cancellations, and you have to ensure you have qualified and registered referees present at all times on game days in a particular day. How do you keep it all straight? With a complete ongoing solution from ArbiterSports.

STAY AHEAD OF THE GAME

Using ArbiterOne, you can get a unified view of all your officials, their availability, contact information, even pictures when you wish make your assignments from the master database that you maintain. It's easy to find officials and you can manage all the day-to-day assignments like a true professional.

STAY AHEAD OF THE GAME

With ArbiterWorks, you can create a portal to help keep officials current and eligible to do their jobs. Upload premade training videos or videos that you create, administer testing on concepts and rules, add new regulations as well as rule interpretations, even track who's completed assignments.

Through ArbiterWorks, officials can register to officiate so you can comply with your state's policies and assign officials who are ready to work games. Keep your officials current and have the peace of mind knowing they are prepared for game day.

STAY AHEAD OF THE GAME

With RefPay, assigners can stop printing, stuffing and mailing payments out to officials every week. All processing, transfers and reporting are handled electronically, with a click of the mouse. Input all your information in the system and let RefPay take care of the rest.

As for playing by the rules, federal and state compliance is built into the system and stays up to date because all ArbiterSports products are web-based. What's more, the funds deposited through RefPay are secure and fully insured in the bank of Utah and can only be deposited in FDIC accounts. So RefPay guards you against any downside for making payments to your officials.

KEEP THE BALL ROLLING

When you assign with ArbiterOne, you can schedule automatic game schedule reminders, game change notifications and other critical alerts so no one drops the ball. You can even include helpful information like maps to the game venues, site contact information in case of an emergency, as well as game fees and any travel policies and constraints.

Make sure your officials add ArbiterConnected to the mix, and they will know what's going on at any moment because many of the benefits of ArbiterOne will be available on their mobile devices. The solution, designed for officials to purchase and use, ensures you've got the right information in the right hands at any minute. Fewer surprises. Fewer frustrations.

"ArbiterSports helps us manage our assigning more efficiently than ever before, saving us hundreds of hours and thousands of dollars every month."
